

Palabras Afirmativas y Negativas

They are used to talk about _____ and _____ situations.

For indefinite situations:

1. Algo _____
2. Alguien _____
3. Algún/Alguno (a) _____
4. Siempre _____
5. También _____

For negative situations:

1. Nada _____
2. Nadie _____
3. Ningún/Ninguno(a) _____
4. Nunca _____
5. Tampoco _____

the numbers next to the negative and positive words match up the opposites

Alguno and Ninguno must agree in _____ and _____ with the noun they replace or accompany.

When they are followed by a masculine noun, you must use the forms algún or ningún instead!

Ejemplo:

In Spanish, when the word “no” is before the verb, the words that follow the verb must also be _____.

Unlike in English, a _____ is REQUIRED when “no” is placed in front of the verb.

Ejemplos:

If a negative word like _____ or _____ precedes the verb, the double negative is NOT USED!

Ejemplo: